

4 November 2019

Dear Parents/Carers

The student House Captains wanted to make you aware of several upcoming events within the Academy.

Act of Remembrance

On 8th November (the Friday closest to Remembrance Sunday) we will be holding our annual Act of Remembrance remembering all those who have served in the Armed Forces to defend our democratic freedom. Students are allowed to wear poppies, which can be obtained from Student Services for a small donation.

Odd Socks Day

On Tuesday 12th November 2019, we invite everyone to come to the Academy wearing odd socks to help raise awareness around anti-bullying and to coincide with our Anti-Bullying week. Through the week, we will raising awareness through assemblies and sharing how the student body can support each other. Students will still need to wear full school uniform but can wear odd socks in addition. There will be a prize for the form group with the most students wearing odd socks.

Children in Need

On Friday 15th November is Children in Need. As part of this, we will be running several events in the Academy to raise funds. The theme of Children in Need is 'together we can change young lives.' We shall be holding a raffle draw and selling edible goodies. Students can bring in money to spend. All money raised will be going directly to Children in Need.

We hope that all students will want to take part in these important events.

Yours sincerely,

Academy Captains (Eduardo, Maria and Lea) on behalf of the House Captains.
